

From: hal King
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 9:24am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I stand against the Microsoft settlement. It allows Microsoft to police themselves. After the recent Enron mess, the DOJ can not sit by without acting in the public good. Microsoft's cost of software it claims to be donating is zero! All it will cost them is the price of the packaging. Also by "donating" their software, they are in fact marketing to children.

Please do not let Microsoft get away without punishment.

--

Hal King Unix System Group / The University of Tennessee at Knoxville
pgp key <http://web.utk.edu/~hck/hal.asc>